

We're Partnering with APLF to Better Serve You

Your voice. A stronger community. Real results.

What is APLF?

The American Public Leadership Foundation (APLF) is a nonpartisan, nonprofit platform that helps communities measure what residents actually care about, provides a standardized leadership assessment for candidates, and compares government actions to public priorities.

Our goal is simple: a more informed, engaged community and a government that reflects the people it serves.

How It Works

A simple, continuous cycle to turn your input into action.

LISTEN

Residents share priorities through polls and the Foundry.

EVALUATE

We analyze what matters most to our community.

MEASURE

We track government actions against community priorities.

IMPROVE

Insights help inform decisions, programs, and future planning.

LISTEN AGAIN

We keep the conversation going year-round.

CLEANER, SAFER NEIGHBORHOODS

STRONGER SCHOOLS AND OPPORTUNITIES

IMPROVED LOCAL SERVICES AND INFRASTRUCTURE

A MORE ENGAGED AND INFORMED COMMUNITY

How You Can Get Involved

Take short, anonymous polls on the issues that matter to you.

Share ideas and feedback in the Foundry (free-form comments).

See how your priorities compare with government actions.

Stay informed with easy-to-understand community results.

It only takes a few minutes, and your input helps shape a stronger, more responsive community.

Supports better decision-making and long-term planning

Nonpartisan. Community Focused. Built for You.

APLF does not tell you what to think, whom to support, or which policy position to choose. It is a nonpartisan, nonprofit platform designed to give residents a voice, provide useful information, and help local governments better understand and respond to the needs of the community.

*Your community.
